Randolph families,
As we enter the month of November, I want to take time to say thanks to our Randolph community. I am impressed daily with the support teachers, staff and students receive from all of you. Whether it’s from you ordering items from our PTA wishlist, asking for ways you can help your child or a kind word of encouragement, we are so lucky to be part of the Randolph family. I hope this month of thanksgiving finds you and your family happy and healthy.

Take care & be well,
Monica Jochum
Randolph Principal

Randolph Family Literacy & Game Night
In past years, Randolph has held a Family Literacy & Math Night to fulfill our Title 1 family engagement requirements in lieu of Curriculum Night. This year, we will not be able to have families come into the building, so we are going to come to you remotely! Pick and choose any of the activities listed below. We are excited to announce our Family Literacy & Math Night!

“A book is a gift you can open again and again!”
-- Garrison Keillor

When: Tuesday, November 10, 2020
Time: 5:00 – 7:00

Who: Readers and mathematicians of all ages and their families!

Students will experience aspects of literacy and math through interactive stories and engaging activities that the whole family will enjoy!

Here is the agenda for the night:

● 5:00–5:30 Our Librarian, Mr. Weddleton, will do a presentation on the eBooks that are available to families as well as the upcoming Online Scholastic Book Fair.

● Recorded Title 1 Presentation from Mrs. Jochum: Watch the presentation when it works for you.

● 5:50–6:00 Question and Answer Session about Title I from Mrs. Jochum

   Or

● 5:40–6:00 Families may want to be part of a session entitled “My child is struggling, what can I do?” lead by our School Counselor Mrs. Mahoney and School Social Worker Mrs. Erks

● 6:00–7:00 Families will join 3–20 minute zoom sessions that will contain engaging literacy and math activities.

Mark your calendars for this fun event!

If you plan to attend, please fill out the Google Form to get registered now!

Silent auction items on Facebook!!
Each year we host a silent auction at Fun Night. Last year we were unable to have this event so we have decided to post these items on Facebook for a virtual auction instead!! Many gift cards to adult and children friendly restaurants and entertainment, a ring doorbell, an American Girl doll, and more!! Watch for items on Facebook! These items will be posted during the first couple weeks of November!
